Kindergarten

This term, we began our Recycled Rumble project, and the children have been very excited about the opportunity to showcase their creativity and imagination. Through this project, the children have been learning to reuse recycled materials to create their own toys, artwork and opportunities for play. Gabby and the school captains joined us in a special art lesson exploring their creativity and learning new artistic techniques using recycle materials.

Curriculum

Writing Informative Texts in 3/4

Our 3/4 students have been working hard to publish their informative texts. We have been focusing on paragraph structure, using topic-specific vocabulary, maintaining consistent tense and writing compound and complex sentences. All students have done an amazing job! Below are two examples of their incredible work. On the left is Elias's informative text about Minecraft and on the right is Sung Sung's informative text about the arrival of Europeans in Australia.

The Visions to the Past

Two worlds collide

For more than 60,000 years Aboriginal people have lived in Australia, but as they lived longer they had a deeper connection, even making their own traditions and beliefs.
But something tragic hits...

The truth comes out

The British claimed that there was no one on this land but they could clearly see the aboriginal people on the land living there, with their own resources and their own traditions. Aboriginal people struggled to stay alive, getting forced to get on their knees and were forced to be their personal slaves. The British men also killed people such as babies, kids, teenagers, and adults also bringing a disease of their own.

The struggle begins

Some unknown British colonizers showed up at the land with their fleet, the aboriginal people were uneasy but that didn't change their nature while the British men showed a fake innocent smile. As the indigenous people thought the British men were nice, they started to show their real self, they eventually started to grab their weapons and fought and forced them to do as said. The Aboriginal people had no other choice but to obey, they couldn't fight back.

Two worlds collide

After the British took over, the population of the aboriginal people dropped down from 88% to 4% which means aboriginal people were almost extinct and it is rare to find them. Meanwhile captain Arthur Phillip walks in, thinking it's ok to come up with Australia day to celebrate the takeover of the British men.

It all sums up

Indigenous people have lived on this land for thousands of years with a deep connection to country but then some British invaders show up at the land of Woiwurrung with their own fleet, " this land belongs to no one" they claimed. While they could clearly see the aboriginal people on the land. They took away all of their resources and kids, murdering both adults and children, they brainwashed the kids into thinking their parents abandoned them.
Also putting a sign to make them think white, look white and act white.

Stay Late - Pizza Party

Students in the F-3 classes had a stay late during week 2. We were learning about how to make connections with one another, develop leadership skills and build friendships outside of school.

Students participated in play, chalk drawing, a pizza party and a mini-disco. The bubbles in particular were a hit. Well done to all of our students for showing our PROUD values during the event!
